About Glade Gallery:

Profiling artistic practices bound against the conventions of figurative art, Glade Gallery highlights the diversity within contemporary art and fuels the synergy that describes the creative exchanges between American and European art today. Bringing together outstanding artists of diverse generations and genres, the gallery gathers around the various modes of representation that have come to define figurative art in recent decades, as well as affirming its enduring urgency.

Reflecting upon the resonances of the multifaceted contemporary art, Glade Gallery intends to unfold new approaches to the creative act, ultimately offering both the artists and the public the preferred landscape in the building of greater future scenarios.

Glade Gallery, a place where art turns in the direction of your dreams.
